A

ALERT

Provide immediate information in plain language by all means to all involved.

LOCKDOWN

If you determine this is the best action, LOCK your door.

Utilize anything in your room to enhance your barricade and provide reaction time.

Spread out room occupants, do not gather together, remain standing and alert.

Monitor information being provided, real time information may change the security and soundness of your decision to lockdown.

L

INFORM

Continue to provide real time information to everyone involved.

Information allows for good decision making.

Real time information may disrupt shooter/intruder and their plans.

I

COUNTER

The goal is to enhance your survivability.

Empowering you to help yourself in time of need.

Utilize anything and everything in your room to counter the shooter/intruder, create noise, movement and distance. Anything to create a distraction.

If need be, utilize the SWARM technique if you have no other choice, multiple people grabbing onto the shooter/intruder and his limbs to incapacitate.

EVACUATE

Authorizes students, faculty and staff to evacuate if needed and possible without permission.

Reduce number of victims in the target/danger zone.

If possible, proceed to the pre-determined rally point. If not possible, just run and look for help.

E

Get out any way you can, do not be afraid to break windows or damage school property to evacuate the building.
